'What budget has your Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner set aside for the costs associated with commissioning Violence Against Women and Girls (VAWG) services? This might include staff costs, legal costs, cost of market engagement events etc. Please supply the answer as total budget for the financial year 2018/19'.

Response

The Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner (the OPCC) does not have a specific budget for Violence against Women and Girls services. However, all the service contracts below will have an element of this type of victim support work within them. Set out below is the OPCC's latest spending budget estimate in each service area for 2018/19.

	£
Domestic abuse contracts with local authorities	338,379
Independent Sexual Advisory (ISVA) service	323,387
Young victims service	436,022
Counselling	400,000
Total	1,497,788
